

6 Tips for Traveling INDIA

What is a mindset difference between Westerners and Indian people?

- Western people are tidier
- Indian people are more open
- Westerners need everything under control
- Indian people fix things when they go wrong

What should women traveling to India know?

- Clothing may make a difference whether you're in the North or South
- You should travel with a man
- Women should be scared
- You have to wear traditional clothing

When going to a shop in India, they both agree that

- Indians will probably try to rip you off
- Haggling for a Tuk-Tuk ride is a good idea
- Pay the price and don't haggle
- India is a poor country

Regarding poor people in India

- It's a good idea to buy them at least two meals
- It's a generalized problem in the country
- They're all harmless and nice
- They'll try to steal from you

When traveling to India, they both agree that...

- It's possible to visit India in three months
- You should visit the North if it's your first time
- You should focus on one place
- It's bigger than America